Introducing Arlene ...

Our speaker today was born and raised on a farm near Mervin in north-west Saskatchewan. She has a degree in Nursing from the University of Saskatchewan and a specialty designation in Occupational Health Nursing. She worked for Health and Welfare Canada as a nurse practitioner in northern Saskatchewan, the North West Territories and Winnipeg before moving back “home” to Saskatchewan.

In 1993 Arlene left the federal government to start HEALTHSERV with clinics in Regina and Saskatoon. As the largest occupational health consulting company in the province, they specialize in independent medicals, drug and alcohol testing, disability management and hearing conservation. (SaskPower, Hitachi, Wheat Pool and Weyerhaeuser are some of her larger clients).

Her entrepreneurial spirit has her to being nominated twice for a YWCA Women of Distinction Award. HEALTHSERV won two North Saskatoon Business Association awards for Innovation as well as being honoured as a finalist for a Chamber of Commerce SABEX award.

She is the President of Saskatchewan Business and Professional Women’s Organization, is a member of Women Entrepreneurs of Saskatchewan, the Canadian Society of Safety Engineers and the director for the Bible Camp in her home town. She married Stu over 10 years ago, and is just now coming to terms with being a grandma!

Arlene’s belief in personal empowerment and success training, added with her dynamic style and practical perspective have quickly brought her into much demand as a keynote speaker and convention presenter.

Her talk today is entitled _____
Let’s welcome Arlene Jorgenson!
